

GJEL ACCIDENT ATTORNEYS

$737,500 BICYCLE ACCIDENT SETTLEMENT

How GJEL helped a client who came to us after a bicycle accident in Contra Costa County.

HIGHLIGHTS

- $737,500 Recovered
- One year from start to finish
- Settled before trial
- The insurance company originally refused to pay their fair part

Andy Gillin's deep-rooted commitment to justice can be traced back to his early days as a public service attorney, where he tirelessly advocated for low-income families and individuals, exemplifying his unwavering dedication to those in need. His decision to focus on personal injury law was not just a career choice, but a continuation of his mission to fight for the underrepresented, a testament to his lifelong pursuit of fairness and justice for all.

ANDY GILLIN

PROBLEM

Our client was obeying the rule of the road when another driver caused a serious accident. The accident resulted in the loss of work, serious injuries, and large medical bills leaving our client in a quandary.

Our client needed ongoing medical treatment after the case. Originally, the insurance company of the party at fault was not willing to pay for our client's medical bills, let alone her pain and suffering.

HOW WE HELPED

The staff at GJEL were able to quickly evaluate the case over the phone and the client came to the GJEL offices to meet with our attorneys.

Based on the serious injuries from this accident and the mounting medical bills, our client decided to retain GJEL Accident Attorneys to help get her life back on track after this tragic accident.

The staff at GJEL started a full investigation which started with getting the police report.

At first, the party at fault's insurance company was not taking full responsibility. The firm filed a lawsuit and moved aggressively to establish fault as well as the significance of the injuries.

Attorneys Andrew Gillin and Jim Larsen helped our client through this difficult time and were able to settle this case prior to trial.

The case took approximately one year to settle, and in the end, our client was awarded $737,500 through aggressive representation.

